LOYAL LEGION OVERLOOKS THIS DUTY

Pittsburg Editor Asks Legion to Protect Rights of Negro Soldiers

(A. N. P. Service.)

The white soldiers of the United States should prove themselves a power to compel recognition of the civil right of the Negro soldiers who served in the same cause of civilization. There should be a pride of the service and a protecting determination for the rights of every soldier, white or black, to bring the Legion to the defense of the Negroes of the South where racial discriminations and hatreds are blind to the respect due the uniform. The Legion could not do a better service to the country, to itself and the Negro soldiers than by taking up the case of the ex-serviceman of the South and compelling respect for him as well as his white comrades, so far as his rights under the law are concerned.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

GOVERNMENT PROSECUTES SUGAR PROFITEERS

Commissioner Figg Again Predicts Drop in Sugar

Star News Service.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—While the justice department today denied that sugar profiteers were escaping punishment, Senator McNary, of Oregon, declared that evidence of enormous profits were being made in sugar—running as high as 100 percent in some cases—had been received from many sources.
Assistant Attorney General Figg, in charge of pushing the government's campaign to reduce living costs, announced that in the last 60 days 110 criminal cases have been stated against sugar profiteers. These resulted, he said, from approximately five hundred investigations of alleged profiteers cases. Figg predicted a drop in sugar prices.

NEGRO "Y" WORKERS GOOD SERVICE OVERSEAS.

Though Insulted They Showed Spirit of Great Master.

Of the large group of "Y" workers who went overseas 84 were Negroes, and 23 of these were women, only three of whom were in France during the actual fighting; not until months after the armistice were other Negro women sent overseas. There were never more than 75 Negro Y secretaries in France at any one time, and they were scattered among nearly 200,000 Negro troops. Many times Negro men were met in France who had never seen a Negro

"Y" worker, and had not received service from any "Y" worker. These 75 secretaries served with the fighting units and with troops in the Service of Supplies and in leave areas. The fighting units of Negro soldiers were the 92d and 93d Divisions, the latter comprising four regiments brigaded with the French. It was in these units that the secretaries won well-deserved praise for faithful service and unflinching courage. The airplane raids, bombardments from enemy guns, and bursting gas shells did not slacken their ardor to follow men wherever they went.

This work was well summed up, in a talk given to Negro secretaries at a banquet in Paris by Mr. E. C. Carter, head of the Y. M. C. A. overseas, who said, "No group of secretaries has been more successful nor has any work been on a higher level. I have been impressed most by your spirit. Sometimes you have met with difficulties and have been insulted by workers with the red triangle on their arms, but in it all you have shown the spirit of the Great Master."

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION UPHOLDS THE LAW

Strong Resolutions Adopted Condemning Mob Violence.

(A. N. P. Service.)

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Feb. 6.—In voting on what was apparently a non-anti-resolution, only 85 members of the American Bar Association have gone on record as opposing the principle that whatever force is necessary to maintain the supremacy of the law should be controlled and exercised by the Federal, State and municipal governments. This fact was brought out at a session of the Executive Committee of the association, meeting in the Bellevue-Stradford.

There was submitted to the members of the American Bar Association for a referendum vote the following resolution:

"Whereas, The Constitution of the United States and the Constitutions of the several States contemplate government by and for all the people and not by or for any particular class, group of interest, now, therefore be it

"Resolved, that the liberties of the people and the preservation of their institutions depend upon the control and exercise by the Federal State and municipal governments of whatever force is necessary to maintain at all hazards the supremacy of the law and to suppress disorder and punish crime.

It developed at the only session that while there were 6875 replies in favor of the resolution, there were only 85 against it. The names of the 85 dissenting members have not been made public.

CONGRESSMAN HOWARD A TULSA VISITOR.

Hon. E. B. Howard, Congressman from this district, has been a distinguished visitor to Tulsa this week, and addressed the Democratic Convention for an hour. He will also address the Democratic Convention at Muskogee on 5th. Mr. Howard is a broad-gauged American who believes in giving every man a chance; he is making an excellent congressman and we are indeed glad to claim him as our friend.

The Democrats of the city honored two men of our Race last week by electing Hon. E. I. Saddler and Fred L. Douglass as delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

M. Green Smith, the expert mechanic, who is erecting a $30,000 structure for Mr. Reed, also Colored, of Beggs, Okla., was here last week after material. Before leaving he called at The Star office and left an order for job printing.

Mr. Frank R. Williams has been confined to his room with sickness this week.

Mrs. Joseph Marsh, an excellent lady of Muskogee, was in the city Monday to see us on business matters touching the Creek Association.
